to Dewan of Mysore.

Sir.

I have the honor to forward herewith an application Regr No 432 of 22nd October last together with estimate &c, received from the Resident of Muggehully, Chennapatam Taluq, praying that Government will kindly grant half the cost of repairing to the Temple of Lakoni Narasimhaswamy at Inggehally.

2. The temple is of an architectural interest having been built by the famous Dakanachari. It has a surplus of only Rs 195. 7. 1 at its credit whole of which amount might be given towards the cost of the repairs to the car which has been estimated at Rs 800, provided the devotees contribute the balance by subscription to be raised among themselves.

3. As the devotees have been informed of the condition precedent to the grant I beg to recommend that the sanction of the Dewan may be obtained for paying the amount towards the intended purpose.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant.
